McQueen new chair and CEO at The Private Bank-Michigan

By Tom Henderson

Patrick McQueen has been appointed chairman and CEO of Bloomfield Hills-based The PrivateBank-Michigan, effective Friday.

He had been president and COO at the bank and replaces David Provost, who resigned to pursue other opportunities.

McQueen joined Bloomfield Hills Bancorp in 1999 after serving six years as the state banking commissioner and remained with the bank after it was bought by the Chicago-based PrivateBancorp Inc. in 2005.

McQueen previously spent 23 years at Manufacturer's National Bank.

"We regret David's departure, but respect his decision and wish him the best in his future endeavors. We anticipate a seamless transition, given Pat's proven leadership capabilities," said Ralph Mandell, chairman of PrivateBancorp Inc., in a press release.
