Seaholm downs Rice and Pioneer for second straight Warrior Relay Title

Put them in Division One and the Maples proved today that they would do some damage. Defeating Division One #2 Birmingham Brother Rice and #3 Ann Arbor Pioneer today at Warrior relays was a feat that required some excellence late in the meet.

While Seaholm is slightly lacking in the backstroke department, they certainly found another backstroker in the last 2 meets to help out Colin Finley and Connor Saeli this season.

Sophomore Matthew Perham, who was known as a distance freestyler last season, showed up big, leading off the 400 Medley Relay for an absent Connor Saeli (Taking the ACT) with a 58.59, missing the Division Two State cut by a mere tenth of a second.

"I had a crappy third turn," said an out of breath Perham, "it was a pretty good swim though and I'm happy with it."

Seaholm put the meet away late by dominating the 4x100 Individual Medley Relay behind a big time anchor leg of Matthew Wolkhamer, and the 200 Breaststroke relay of Jack Howard, Jack Russell, Evan Burke, and Matthew Wolkhamer, who finished first with a time of 1:55.19.

The Maples also surprised teams by going a blistering 1:30.50 in the 200 Freestyle Relay and finishing second to Rice. The relay showed off the speed of Junior anchor Addison Williams who split a 22.30.
